

Overview

Claridge Strategies LLC is a professional services firm, providing executive level corporate finance services to public and private companies on a contract basis.

We specialize in managing projects and transactions relating to periods of corporate transition, such as mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, capital sourcing, and turnaround management. We can also provide senior executives who serve as CEO, President or CFO during interim periods, or anytime additional executive resources are necessary.

Claridge Strategies covers a broad spectrum of industries, including manufacturing and distribution, information systems and software technology, service, multi-unit retail, real estate, and life sciences, among others.

Our service approach is to develop long-term relationships with our clients. The longer we work together, the better we'll know your business, the more value we can add, and the more you will come to trust in, and rely upon our expertise.
